

BOOK COVER DESIGNING COMPETITION

'The cover of the book is the beginning of the conversation between the author and the reader.'

A Book Cover Designing Competition was organized for students of class IV to encourage creativity and artistic expression. The event showcased their talent by designing covers for their favorite books or for imaginary titles of their own.

The competition aimed to enhance students' understanding of visual storytelling and the importance of presentation. Participants were judged on creativity, originality, relevance to the book theme, color coordination, and overall visual appeal.

The event was a resounding success, highlighting the artistic potential of students and reinforcing the value of books and reading in a creative way.
